

Call for Nominations: Governor's Award

The State of Montana is seeking to recognize an outstanding person or entity for their work in promoting the use of Montana-sourced wood products. Governor Steve Bullock will personally present the award during Montana Forest Products Week, October 18-24, 2015. Nominations are open to any person, business or organization that has significantly advanced the utilization of Montana wood products, raised awareness of the importance of Montana wood products, or promoted the use of Montana wood products.

Nominations are open from now until September 16th. The selection committee will select the award recipient by October 1st.

Nominations can be submitted via email to Pedro Marques with the DNRC Forest Products and Biomass Program at: forestproductsweek@mt.gov.
