

Stipulation for former Lease #10594

1. Lessee must either reseed the grazing acres back to an approved grass mix for grazing or complete the necessary steps with the DNRC to get these acres evaluated for farming. These steps would include at a minimum an application for breaking of these acres, a conservation plan from the local NRCS office, and approval from the DNRC to proceed with breaking and farming these acres.