DAM SAFETY PERMITTING PROCESS

Hazard Determination
- Application Received
  - 10 days
  - Notify owner in writing application is received
  - Request additional information
  - # Days set by DNRC
- Complete Application
  - 60 days
  - Notify owner in writing hazard determination

Construction Permit
- Application Received
  - (application form, engineering report, plans and specs)
  - 30 days
  - DNRC:
    - 1) Notifies owner of errors or omissions
    - 2) Request additional information
  - Complete Application
  - Work initiated
    - 30 days
    - Construction progress reports at 30-day intervals
  - Final Inspection
    - (10 days advance notice)
  - Construction Permit Approval
  - Owner notifies DNRC:
    - 1) Time to complete construction
    - 2) Inspection force
  - 1 year

Operation Permit
- Inspection
  - Within 5 years of last inspection
  - 60 days
  - Engineer sends report to owner for review
  - 90 days
  - Owner delivers a copy of inspection report to DNRC along with statement of intent in regard to any deficient or unsafe items identified in As-Builts submitted; first fill inspections as needed
  - 90 days
  - 30 days
  - Need more info?
  - Y
  - N
  - DNRC will:
  - Notify owner of errors or omissions and request additional information
  - 30 days
  - 90 days
  - Complete Application
  - Operation Permit Approval
  - Written certification that dam is functioning as designed within 1 year (warranty inspection)