

From the following website on 12/2013

http://www1.co.snohomish.wa.us/Departments/Public\_Works/Divisions/SWM/F/

Snohomish County Washington

Public Works: Surface Water Management

Enter Keywords

Home About The County Services A-Z County A-Z Links Popular Services Print Version

Surface Water Management Menu

Public Works Links

Public Works
PW Divisions
Surface Water
River Floodplains
Comm Rating Syst
Elevate-Buyout
Flood Info Center
Flood Hazard Plans
Floodplain Maps
Info-River Levels and Flood Stages
River Mgmt Plans

Home > Departments > Public Works > PW Divisions > Surface Water > River Floodplains

Surface Water Management Division River Floodplain Management Programs

Surface Water Management conducts river-related studies and provides on-site investigations, technical assistance, flood warning programs, planning services and emergency response to citizens, businesses, and agencies to prevent flooding and respond to flood emergencies.

January 2009
Stillaguamish River at Church Creek, near Stanwood. The Park and Ride in the foreground is at the intersection of Hwy 532 and Marine Drive.

Shortcuts

- Related Links
- Related Media
- Related Maps
- Related Services

Flood Information Center

- Provides information on what to do before, during and after a flood, important contact numbers and info on how the flood warning system works.
- Real-Time Flood Warning System - Provides timely information on flood status and river levels across Snohomish County.

Flood Hazard Management Planning Program

Planning and development of flood hazard management plans for the main rivers; which includes technical assistance and emergency response to citizens, businesses, and agencies to prevent flooding and respond to flood emergencies.

Community Rating System

Floodplain Mapping

Digital Flood Insurance Rate Maps