I. INTRODUCTION

On July 18, 2005 the Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (Department) adopted the Real Estate Management Plan Record of Decision (ROD) which provides policy, direction, and guidance in the selection and management of real estate development on State Trust Lands. The ROD covers those activities related to the leasing, exchanging, or selling of trust lands for residential, commercial, industrial, and conservation purposes. In December 2008, the Department adopted the Real Estate Management Administrative Rules (Appendix E; ARM 36.25.901 et seq.) to implement the key components of the ROD.

The Real Estate Management Bureau of the Forestry & Trust Lands Division is required to report the following to the State Board of Land Commissioners (Board) every five years:

- A. Implementation and Effectiveness of the Real Estate Management Plan, per ARM 36.25.914
- B. Accounting and Reporting on the compliance with Statewide and Rural Development Thresholds provided in ARM 36.25.911, as well as other specific lease, easement, sale, acquisition and development activities per ARM 36.25.913(3).

1. ACCOUNTING CRITERIA

As provided in ARM 36.25.913, the Department must account for the following:

- A. Commercial, industrial, and residential projects involving notification of conservation entities prior to project implementation as required by ARM 36.25.910.
- B. Commercial, industrial, and residential projects exempt from the Development Thresholds per ARM 36.25.912.
- C. Acres under commercial, industrial, or residential lease where no commercial, industrial, or residential lease existed previously;
- D. Acres under easement for commercial, industrial, or residential use;
- E. Non-isolated tracts sold and developed for a commercial, industrial, or residential use within five years of sale;
- F. Tracts acquired with existing commercial, industrial, or residential development;
- G. Tracts, or portions of tracts, encumbered or purchased with an existing conservation lease, license, easement, or other means of securing conservation uses;
- H. Non-isolated tracts sold and encumbered with a restriction on development for conservation uses within five years of sale;
- I. Acres dedicated as open space during subdivision review in excess of minimum requirement; and
- J. Acres designated as "Natural Area" per Title 77, chapter 12, part 1, MCA.

The Real Estate Management Administrative Rules (Rules) are applicable to those real estate projects, sales, and exchanges that occurred after adoption of the ROD on July 18, 2005. Per ARM 36.25.903, the Rules specify that the applicability does not include: lease lots created prior to July 18, 2005, projects that received all local government approvals necessary for the project on or before December 15, 2008, Land Use Licenses, or activities within navigable waterways.

Projects and activities for which the Rules are not applicable are not included in this report.

2. DEVELOPMENT THRESHOLDS AND EXEMPTIONS

Development Thresholds

Qualifying development will count toward the Development Thresholds described in ARM 36.25.911. The Development Threshold means a predefined number of state trust land acres to be developed for commercial, industrial or residential uses. The rule defines a 30,000 acre statewide Development Threshold, of which, no more than 1500 acres of qualifying development may occur in rural areas.

If, prior to July 18, 2025, the aggregate acreage of qualifying development were to meet or exceed either the Statewide Threshold of 30,000 acres, or the Rural Threshold of 1,500 acres, the Department must conduct a programmatic review of the Plan per ARM 36.25.914(2). This acreage was not large enough to trigger the review in July 2025.

Qualifying development is limited to:

- A. State Trust Lands sold or exchanged after July 18, 2005 and developed within five years of the closing date for commercial or industrial use.
- B. Tracts disposed of through sale or exchange after July 18, 2005 and developed within five years for residential uses if the planned density is greater than one residential unit per 25 acres.
- C. Lands that were ready for lease after July 18, 2005, and were leased for commercial or industrial uses, or at residential densities as described above.

Development Threshold Exemptions

ARM 36.25.912 provides exemptions from both the Statewide and Rural Development Thresholds.

Statewide

- A. Five Year Exemption: Sale or exchange of any tract, when it remains undeveloped during the five years following the sale closing date. Existing commercial/industrial/residential development on tracts sold/exchanged will not trigger the Development Thresholds (i.e. “grandfathered development”). Any development activity after the five year period will not count toward the Development Thresholds.

- B. Isolated Tract: Sale or exchange of an isolated tract in any county except in Beaverhead, Broadwater, Carbon, Cascade, Flathead, Gallatin, Lewis and Clark, Lake, Madison, Missoula, Park, Powell, Ravalli, Stillwater, Sweet Grass, Teton, and Yellowstone counties.
- C. Public Use: Sale, exchange, lease or easement to a public entity, for a public facility, community service, or for a private sewer or water system. Development of a tract meeting these criteria may occur within five years of sale or exchange without counting toward the Development Thresholds.
- D. Alternative Energy/Communications: Development of communications facilities, and wind, geothermal, or solar power generation facilities are exempt from the Development Thresholds.
- E. Cluster Development: Sale, exchange or lease of a tract that is developed for commercial, residential, or industrial uses on not more than 25 percent of a tract, and the remainder is deed restricted for conservation.
- F. Residential Density: Sale, exchange or lease of a tract that is developed for residential use when the density is limited to one residential unit per 25 acres through a deed restriction or other instrument that restricts density.
- G. Transfer of Development Rights: Sale, exchange or lease of a tract within a receiving area established by a local jurisdiction as part of a Transfer of Development Rights program, and developed for commercial, industrial, or residential use utilizing development rights permanently transferred from State Trust Land in the sending area.
- H. "Conservation of Other Tracts": Sale, exchange or lease of a tract that is developed for residential uses at a density greater than one unit per 25 acres if the potential density of one or more other tracts of State Trust Land is reduced in perpetuity by an equal or greater amount, such that the combined development density of all tracts is not greater than one unit per 25 acres.
- I. Conservation: Any portion of a tract dedicated for conservation (open space, parks, etc) upon final subdivision approval in excess of minimum state or local subdivision standards will be exempt from the Development Thresholds.

Rural

A tract that meets one or more of the statewide exemptions provided in ARM 36.25.912(1) will be exempt from both the Statewide and Rural Development Thresholds. However, a rural tract that doesn't meet any of the Statewide Threshold Exemptions, but does meet one or more of the following criteria, will be exempt from the Rural Development Threshold [ARM 36.25.912(2)]:

- A. County Zoning: When the tract is subject to zoning adopted by the county's governing body in compliance with Title 76, chapter 2, part 1 or part 2, MCA.
- B. Development Standards: When the tract is, or will upon development for commercial, industrial or residential uses:
 - (i) provides infill opportunities;
 - (ii) contiguous to existing development;

- (iii) located within a sewer or water utility service area;
- (iv) adds value to existing uses;
- (v) demonstrates economic viability; and
- (vi) conforms to the development standards in ARM 36.25.904.

II. ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING

1. NOTIFICATION OF CONSERVATION ENTITIES PRIOR TO PROJECT IMPLEMENTATION

Per ARM 36.25.909(2), the Department maintains a list of conservation entities and other persons and organizations wishing to be notified when new Real Estate Projects are being proposed. Conservation entities are notified when new Real Estate Projects (see definitions) are proposed. The Department provides conservation entities 60 days in which to propose a conservation use of those lands identified for a Real Estate Project in accordance with ARM 36.25.910.

A general notification was sent to conservation entities in December 2006 for all real estate projects in existence at that time. Two additional projects were selected in May 2009 and notification was sent at that time. Three Projects were added to the list after July 2015, and notification was sent: Penwell Bridge in Belgrade, Fox Farm Rd in Great Falls, and Butte Industrial District near Rocker. In 2023, the Philipsburg parcel was added to the PIT list and a notification was sent out to interested parties. Per ARM 36.25.909(3), the Department provides a list of real estate projects to the Board within 30 days of selection of a new real estate project. If no new projects are added to the list within a given year, the Department will provide the list to the Board annually. The list is made available to the public through the Department's website as well as the Board's meeting archive.

Interested Parties may sign up on the Department website to be included in an electronic mailing list to receive email notifications when a new project is proposed and for any updates to the annual ongoing projects list.

2. PROJECTS EXEMPT FROM THE DEVELOPMENT THRESHOLDS.

IV. IMPLEMENTATION AND EFFECTIVENESS OF THE REAL ESTATE MANAGEMENT PROGRAMMATIC PLAN

Per ARM 36.25.914, the Department must issue a report upon the implementation and effectiveness of the Real Estate Management Programmatic Plan (Plan), including recommendations on the need for significant changes to the plan.

Implementation

The Department has implemented all parts of the Real Estate Management Programmatic Plan as specified in Administrative Rules of Montana 36.25.901 et seq.

The Department employs three area Planners that are specialists in ensuring that Development Standards are met when selecting and proceeding with any real estate project. In addition to Real Estate Management Bureau staff, Planners are key members in Project identification, Project review, site specific evaluations, and helping to secure appropriate entitlements on trust land.

The Project Identification Team and Project Review Committee meet annually in the spring to review new and existing projects, and to assign resources. A Project Management List is developed after the meeting and presented to the Board, distributed to interested parties, and posted on the Department website. The Department maintains a list of conservation interests and notifies parties on the list when any new real estate project is selected. Additionally, the Department has created an internet email mailing list that interested parties may sign up for at any time on the Department web site. To date, one interest has been expressed in securing a conservation use on the Fox Farm property near Great Falls. A local conservation group is working on partnering with Cascade County and working through the application process.

The Development Thresholds, or limitation on acres to be developed for commercial, industrial, or residential uses, are established in rule 36.25.911 to be 30,000 acres statewide, and 1,500 acres rural. The Department maintains records of all commercial leases, sales, exchanges, acquisitions, and easements upon state trust land. The data has been reviewed against threshold criteria and to date we have stayed within limitations and have only met 270.76 acres of the statewide development threshold (0.90%) and 256.49 acres of the rural development threshold (17.10%).

The Rules require a five-year report to account for real estate management activities that meet ARM 36.25.910 and 36.25.912, in addition to other specific criteria that are otherwise not mentioned in the Rules. The Department completed the first report as required in July of 2010, subsequent reports were prepared in August of 2015, November 2020, and this report as required in November 2025.

Adaptations and Considerations

- At the time the Plan was developed, the Department had a Statewide Planner position. The Plan specifically identifies the Statewide Planner's role and specific job duties. The Department no longer has that position. The job duties have been shared between Bureau staff and area Planners.
- The Rules require that the Department account for acquisitions of tracts with existing commercial, industrial, or residential development; however acquisitions are not included at all in the applicability of development thresholds in 36.25.911. It is unclear if the intent of the Plan was to count these types of properties towards development thresholds. The Department has not included these types of properties in the development thresholds in this report.
- The Rules specifically require an accounting report for projects and activities that are exempt from development thresholds, but it does not require that the Department report on the overall status of the development threshold and acres that are not exempt. The Department has elected to report on the status of the threshold.
- The Plan identifies Real Estate Projects as either "Projects" or "Activities" with both having different criteria. They are further defined below and are both used to achieve the potential of a parcel for highest and best use.
- The Plan specifies a multitude of forms for the Project Identification process. These forms can be cumbersome and excessive.

Effectiveness

The Real Estate Management Programmatic Plan has established helpful criteria in selecting Real Estate Projects statewide and allocating resources toward selected projects appropriately. Due to the scope of this report, it does not detail projects and activities that resulted in new commercial leases on Trust land and subsequently increased revenue to the Trust. In addition, the timing of some of the projects coincided with a significant downturn in the real estate market in 2008 and these projects are only now being analyzed and moved forward as local conditions warrant such actions.

The Development Threshold has established limitations on statewide and rural development. To date, leases, easements, sales, and exchanges on State trust land have hardly scratched the surface of the thresholds. This demonstrates that real estate activity on trust land either has a minor impact on Development Thresholds, or is exempt from the Development Thresholds, or otherwise not applicable to the Development Thresholds. Tracking the impact of real estate activity on the thresholds is a time consuming and complicated process that includes analyzing hundreds of real estate activities against a complicated list of exemptions and exclusions; in addition, physically reviewing/monitoring privately owned tracts of land long after Department ownership has been transferred through sale or exchange, is excessive and apparently unnecessary given the observed impact on the threshold.

Department Review or Action

The Department does not wish to review or modify the Real Estate Management Programmatic Plan at this time.

36.25.904 GENERAL DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS

(1) The department will actively pursue commercial, industrial, residential, and conservation uses to increase revenue on trust lands, through one or more of the following means:

- (a) targeting those tracts most suitable for development;
- (b) improving entitlements on tracts selected for sale or development, when appropriate; or
- (c) prioritizing projects with the highest financial return per acre.

(2) The department will give priority to urban real estate projects over rural real estate projects using the following criteria:

- (a) financial rate of return per acre;
- (b) funding availability; and
- (c) the acres remaining in the development thresholds described in ARM 36.25.911.

(3) The department will comply with local and state land use regulations. The department will apply the following development standards in selecting, prioritizing, designing, and implementing real estate projects on state trust lands:

- (a) real estate projects should be contiguous to or part of existing or proposed development;
- (b) real estate projects in urban locations must connect to existing or planned public infrastructure and be designed to public standards, including alignment to adjoining public and private streets, that are consistent with local land use regulations;
- (c) urban real estate projects should achieve urban densities consistent with local land use regulations;
- (d) the department will promote mixed use in urban locations through planned-unit development or other means provided by local land-use regulations;
- (e) the department will utilize local land use planning and regulatory processes to involve the general public and beneficiaries in developing state trust lands for commercial, industrial, residential, and conservation uses;
- (f) the department will coordinate environmental review with local regulatory review;
- (g) the department may use or promote purchase of development rights, transfer of development rights, cluster development, joint ventures, or other measures as provided by law;
- (h) the department will coordinate with local communities, other state and federal agencies, conservation agencies, and other interest groups to provide for notice and review as necessary; and
- (i) the department will exclude from consideration, or employ necessary measures to avoid, minimize, or mitigate impacts potentially resulting from commercial, industrial, and residential real estate projects:
 - (i) on slopes greater than 25 percent;
 - (ii) in a designated 100-year floodplain or wetland. The department will avoid adverse impacts in the floodplain. Adverse impacts will be determined by the department through an environmental review in compliance with Title 75, chapter 1, MCA;

(iii) that potentially affect federally listed threatened and endangered species or designated critical habitat; and

(iv) in a designated wildland-urban interface or area of high wildfire hazard.

(4) Any commercial, industrial, or residential lease expected to generate annual revenue in excess of $50,000 may not be issued without the board's prior approval.

(a) The board delegates its authority to the department to issue commercial or industrial leases expected to generate $50,000 or less annually, but the board reserves the authority to subsequently review the issuance of such leases.

(5) Development in rural areas will include commercial resorts, development for public purposes such as sewer or water, natural resource based development, and conservation opportunities. Other unique development opportunities may be considered when the intended uses:

(a) provide infill opportunities;

(b) are contiguous to existing development;

(c) are or can be located within a sewer or water utility service area;

(d) add value to the existing uses;

(e) demonstrate economic viability and conform to applicable development standards; or

(f) limit development to not more than 25 percent of a tract while the remainder of the tract is designated for conservation through an easement, deed restriction, or dedication at final subdivision approval.

(1) ARM 36.25.906 through 36.25.910 describe the evaluation, review, and selection process for real estate projects on state trust lands.

(2) The department will require ARM 36.25.906 through 36.25.910 for real estate projects approved by the project identification team after December 25, 2008.

(3) The department will not require ARM 36.25.906 through 36.25.910 for an individual real estate activity that is associated with a previously approved real estate project.

History: 77-1-209, 77-1-301, 77-1-603, MCA; IMP, 77-1-605, 77-1-903, MCA; NEW, 2008 MAR p. 2645, Eff. 12/25/08.

- (k) proximity to community infrastructure and utilities;
- (l) other nearby residential, industrial, or commercial development, proposed or existing; and
- (m) wildland fire hazards and available fire protection.

(2) The department will analyze federal, state, and local land-use regulations, plans, and policies, for their relationship to the proposed real estate project. This analysis must identify existing entitlements and any entitlements that must be acquired for the proposed real estate project to achieve the highest return.

(3) The department may conduct a market analysis for a parcel proposed for commercial, industrial, residential, or conservation use. At minimum, the market analysis must identify:

By such a letter of intent, an entity may seek to secure for conservation uses any tract or portion of a tract proposed by the project identification team for a residential, industrial, or commercial use.

(2) A conservation entity submitting a letter of conservation intent during the 60 days has an additional 45 days in which to apply to the department for a lease, license, easement, or other approved legal instrument to secure conservation use, as approved by the department. The 45 days begin on the day following the last day of the 60-day period. An entity applying within the 45-day period has 12 months to secure conservation use. The department may extend the 12 month period.

(a) Issuance of a conservation lease, license, or easement shall be made pursuant to Article X, section 11 of the Montana Constitution. The department reserves the right to approve or deny a proposal for a conservation use.

(b) The department may require bonding, letter of credit, or nonrefundable deposit as part of the application for a conservation use.

(a) Five percent of the statewide threshold, termed the rural threshold, is allocated for rural real estate projects, sales, and exchanges. The rural threshold is 1500 acres. The department will conduct a review of the programmatic plan as specified in ARM 36.25.914(2) if the aggregate acreage of real estate projects, sales, and exchanges in rural areas meeting the criteria described in ARM 36.25.916(2) exceeds the rural threshold or is anticipated to exceed the rural threshold during the term of the programmatic plan.

(2) The following, unless otherwise exempted in ARM 36.25.912, will count toward the applicable thresholds in

(1) and (1)(a):

(a) tracts leased or under easement for commercial and industrial uses;

(b) tracts leased or under easement for residential uses at a density greater than one residential unit per 25 acres;

(c) tracts disposed of through sale or exchange and developed within five years following sale for a commercial or industrial use; and

(1) Pursuant to 77-1-905(2), MCA, the department will set the minimum annual rent for any commercial lease to obtain the full market value of that lease. Such rental shall be at a rate not less than the product of the appraised value of the land multiplied by a rate that is two percentage points a year less than the current federally guaranteed, annual, 20-year bond rate provided by the Montana Board of Investments commercial loan rate sheet. For the purpose of calculating the minimum annual rent, the department may round the 20-year rate to the nearest whole number.
