

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Water Measurement Training for Water Commissioners

The Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) Water Science Bureau is hosting a six-hour, hands-on, field-based water measurement training specifically for water commissioners. Participants will gain practical experience using a variety of surface water measurement techniques.

Training Topics Include:

- Flumes and Weirs
- Stream Gages and Rating Curves
- FlowTrackers and Flow Meters
- Unique Situations and Other Methods

 Location:	 Date:	 Cost:
Helena, MT	June 3, 2026	$50

Additional Information:

- Open to all water commissioners.
- A detailed agenda will be provided closer to the training.
- Lunch, snacks, equipment and field transportation will be provided.
- Registration is limited.

Registration Closes: May 15, 2026

TO REGISTER CONTACT:

Jake Mohrmann
DNRC Water Sciences Bureau Chief
Jacob.mohrmann@mt.gov

The Montana Department of Natural Resources & Conservation

