

MILES CITY FLOOD AWARENESS DAY

Week of May 24-27 starting at 5:30pm.

Virtual Meeting

Questions can be typed in during the presentation or after the presentation. You may contact Samantha Malenovsky at 406-234-3493 or smalenovsky@milescity-mt.org to receive a zoom link for each presentation, or find the links on the City of Miles City website at milescity-mt.org, or our Facebook page City of Miles City.

PRESENTATIONS:

Monday, May 24th 5:30-6:15- How to construct a structure in compliance with floodplain regulations, how the NFIP and FEMA affect our community with compliant/non-compliant structures. How the Community Rating System helps our Community (Traci Sears-DNRC)

6:30-7:15- Be Red Cross Ready: Emergency preparedness for natural disasters (Ted Koenig – Red Cross)

Tuesday, May 25th 5:30-6:15– Weather changes now and in the future. (Shawn Palmquist-National Weather Service)

6:30-7:15- Flood insurance changes now and in the future. (FEMA-Diana Herrera)

Wednesday, May 26th 5:30-6:15– Status update from United States Army Corps of Engineers Section 205 study. (Chris Fassero – United States Army Corps of Engineers)

Thursday, May 27th 5:50-6:15– Update of slough restoration project (Dan Richardson, KLJ)

6:30-7:00- Updates on financial options available for Flood Control Project (Becky Bey, KLJ)

Sponsored by:

The logo for the Program for Public Information (PPI) features the letters "PPI" in a large, bold, blue serif font.

Program for Public
Information