

IN THE WATER COURT OF THE STATE OF MONTANA
LOWER MISSOURI DIVISION
BEAVER CREEK, TRIBUTARY TO MILK RIVER (BASIN 40M)

NOTICE OF ENTRY OF PRELIMINARY DECREE AND NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY

AS A WATER USER YOU NEED TO READ THIS ENTIRE NOTICE.

You are hereby notified that the Montana Water Court has entered its Preliminary Decree for the Beaver Creek, Tributary To Milk River (Basin 40M). The entire water rights Decree is now available for your review.

If you, or your predecessors, filed a claim for an existing water right with a priority date before July 1, 1973, an abstract of your claim is enclosed with this Notice. The abstract reflects your existing water right claim as it appears in this Decree.

If you, or your predecessors, only applied for or received a permit or certificate from the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) to appropriate water with a priority date after June 30, 1973 (for example: a well drilled in 1975 for domestic or stock purposes), you will not receive an abstract of water right with this Notice.

WHAT IS A PRELIMINARY DECREE?

This Preliminary Decree is a compilation of 2942 existing water right claims filed in the Beaver Creek, Tributary To Milk River drainage in Basin 40M. This Decree includes all sources of water located within the Beaver Creek, Tributary To Milk River drainage, including, but not limited to Beaver Creek, Big Warm Creek, Larb Creek and all tributaries. See the general Findings and Facts and Conclusions of Law in the Index volume of the Decree for further explanation of the preparation of this Decree.

SHOULD YOU FILE AN OBJECTION?

Only you can answer this question. You should first examine the abstract of your water rights. Is each abstract correct? If you don't agree with your pre-July 1973 water right claim as it is printed on the enclosed abstract, you may file an objection. Your examination must not stop there, though. You must understand three important facts: (1) your water right may be subject to other water rights on your source or on other sources in the Basin; (2) your water right may be subject to water rights in adjoining Basins; and (3) your water right may be subject to Indian and Federal reserved water rights. If you believe other water right claims in this Decree do not reflect their historical beneficial use, you may file an objection and the Water Court will hear your objection.

You can determine the rank of the priority date of your water right in comparison with other water rights in your Basin by using the Index available with the Decree. The Source Name Index lists all water rights under the name of each source of supply (for example, all water rights listed on Big Warm Creek). Under each source name, the water rights are listed from the earliest priority date to the latest priority date. The Priority Date Index lists all water rights within the Basin beginning with the earliest date and continuing to the latest. You can buy a copy of the Decree or just the Index, or you can look at a copy at any of the offices listed below on this Notice or on the Internet. You should review ALL the elements of other water right claims which may affect you.

REVIEW ALL WATER RIGHT ABSTRACTS CAREFULLY

Look carefully at all the water right abstracts in the Decree, including your own abstract. Elements of your water right claim may have been changed since the claim was originally filed. If there is a change, that change has occurred as a result of information obtained during the examination of your claim by the Montana DNRC or by claimant amendment. If an abstract reflects any change, that change may be challenged by filing an objection with the Water Court. If there are issue remarks on the abstract of your claim which are not addressed and resolved by objection, those remarks will be addressed and resolved by the Water Court pursuant to Section 85-2-248, Montana Code Annotated. Your claim may also be called in and reviewed by the Water Court on its own motion pursuant to Rule 8, Water Right Adjudication Rules.

This Decree, as modified after objections and hearings, will be enforceable in accordance with Sections 3-7-212 and 85-2-406, Montana Code Annotated. If a claim receives no objection or is not reviewed by the Water Court pursuant to Section 85-2-248, Montana Code Annotated or Rule 8, Water Right Adjudication Rules, it may remain unchanged, will be enforceable, and may be entered in the Final Decree.

(2) If the Attorney General participated as an intervenor as provided in 85-2-248, the Attorney General may appeal a decision.
